President's Message

After the passing of Wanda Drake, Cesar Ceballos and I agreed to split the duties of president until the nominating committee could identify a candidate. On behalf of all the members, I want to thank Cesar for his service to our Society. His busy art schedule and international travel plans have made it impossible for him to continue to serve.

As you know from the notice we sent out to all members, Sharon Menary's name has been put in nomination for president and we will be voting on candidates for that office at the November 8th meeting. Other names can be nominated from the floor, but the person has to have previously agreed to serve if nominated.

We are also in the process of updating the Bylaws and Standing Rules to present to the board in November for review and discussion before submitting the revised Bylaws to the entire membership for a vote, which will probably be early in 2024.

I am excited to collect your matted paintings for the Wetlands project at the November 8th meeting. The Reception at the Wetlands will be on Sunday, November 12th from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

I hope to see you all at the November 8th meeting! We encourage you to come around 6:00 p.m. to get to know new members and have time to talk to members you may have not seen for a while before the meeting starts at 6:30 p.m.

—Sharon Menary

URGENT REMINDER: Drop off paintings at the meeting Wednesday, 11/8

President's 2023 Community Project: Wetlands for the Holidays

As the President's Community Project for the NVWS 2023–2024 year, we will be donating paintings by our membership to Friends of the Wetlands, a non-profit group that conducts educational programs for children of all ages. They may also elect to make greeting cards from these paintings.

We are hoping for at least 20–30 paintings so please consider donating more than one. This is a very important way for us to expand our profile, attract members and generate publicity for the Nevada Watercolor Society through the Friends of the Wetlands' website, mailings to all their members, and radio ads.

NVWS is providing 11" x 14" frames, so all paintings must be matted to fit that size. Drop off your matted and titled paintings along with a brief bio at the November 8 Membership Meeting.* Paintings will be framed and delivered to the Wetlands on November 11.

You may also donate a painting that you've already framed at 11" x 14" if it is in keeping with the Wetlands theme. Paintings will be sold by and on behalf of the Wetlands.

At the meeting, Vina will have postcards for members to pass out to friends compliments of Friends of the Wetlands. They will be sending them to their members as well and putting posters in libraries and on their website. This a very important project for them and they thank you for your participation.

The Friends of the Wetlands will be hosting a reception for us on Sunday, November 12 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. That will also be the soft opening for the show and sale that will run into December.

KEY REMINDERS:

Paintings must be Wetlands-themed, reflecting the flora, fauna, and/or wildlife that is found in the Wetlands.

Donations of more than one painting is encouraged!

NVWS will take care of the framing. All paintings must be matted to fit 11" x 14."

Friends of the Wetlands hosted reception is Sun, 11/12, 1–3pm.

Participants of the October 7 paint out at the Wetlands.

PAINTING CHECKLIST:

- Painting reflects Wetlands theme
- Painting is matted to fit 11" x 14" frame
- Painting is titled
- Brief bio emailed to Vina at vincur@cox.net (so she won't have to re-type it).

If you have a painting but can't make the meeting, please call Vina Curtis at 725-724-5942 to make arrangements for an alternate drop-off*

November Meeting Presentation

Children's book illustration and publishing

Lin Pacific will be sharing her experience with book illustration and publishing at the NVWS November 8 meeting. She has many years of experience in painting portraits, animals, flowers, and abstracts in oils, acrylics, inks, and other mediums. She particularly loves watercolor because it is a fluid medium with beautiful possibilities and often carries a watercolor art bag with her so she can paint anywhere.

Lin is also an author and a poet. Among her published works are children's book titles, including six Christopher Cat books which feature her hand-drawn watercolor illustrations. Lin says creativity has sustained her throughout life, particularly through the rough patches. She is supported by her loving family and artist friends who help make this world a beautiful place.

Lin's children's book titles, published through Marvelous Books, are available on Amazon.

Donating Art

As we move into the holiday season, don't forget that Hyrum Huskey is donating any of your individually standard sized hand-painted or printed greeting cards or postcards. Please help us with this community project to distribute cards to nursing homes and elder care settings.

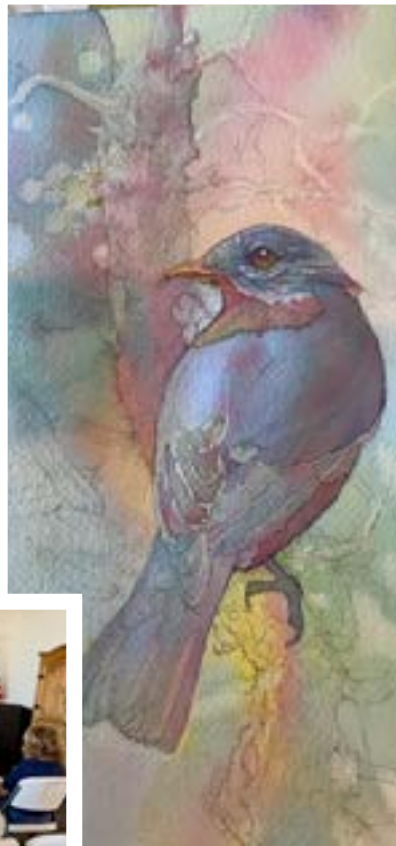

The annual December meeting painting exchange will be here soon so members may want to start thinking about it.

Each member brings an original painting that is at least 5" x 7", matted and wrapped. They then pick a number and it goes from there!

You don't have to submit a painting to come to the December meeting – there is a potluck that night too so feel free to come socialize and observe the game.
